

1. God made two things brand new for Naaman. What were they?
2. What was the nasty and ugly idea in Naaman's heart?
3. What did Naaman do or say that showed that he thought he was the best?
4. Who is actually the best and knows what is best?

1. How do we act that shows we think we're the best?
2. What do we call it when we think we're better than God or that we know better than him?
3. How can we help ourselves to remember that God is the best and knows better than us?
4. How does Jesus make our hearts clean? (What was his heart like?)

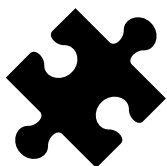

1. Why is God the one who knows what is right for us?
2. What difference do you think having a brand new heart should make?
