

1. Why did Jesus and his friends go to the garden?
2. How did Judas show the soldiers that Jesus was the one they should arrest?
3. How did Jesus help someone who had come to arrest him?
4. What bad thing would happen to Jesus the next day?

1. What would you have done if you were going to be arrested for something you didn't do?
2. What does Jesus do (or not do) that shows he is choosing to go to the cross?
3. What does it tell us about Jesus that he would heal Malchus' ear?

1. In what way are people enemies of God?
2. Why is it important that Jesus chose to go to the cross? What would have been different if he'd been made to die?

What sort of King? - EMU music
Lost in Wonder - Martyn Layzell
The Lord is King – Colin Buchanan

Be quiet for a minute: write down or draw everything you can hear during that time. Do this in different rooms or outside.

Try and throw a pen and catch it behind your ear. Use a phone to record different noises: keys, a pen clicking, a tap running etc. Then play them on shuffle and see if you can guess what they are. Let everyone choose their favourite song and listen to them together.
