

1. What did the soldiers, servants and friends have to do when the Centurion told them to do something?
2. What was the problem that the Centurion couldn't make better?
3. What did Jesus have the power to do? What did he say that happened straight away?

1. What does authority mean?
2. Why does God have authority over the whole world?
3. Why does Jesus also have the same power over the world?
4. Can you think of any other times we see that Jesus has the power to say something and it happens?

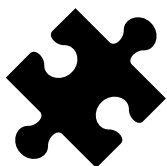

1. Why is it good for you to listen to and obey God?
2. What does he ask you to do? See Matthew 22:36-40
3. What does it look like for you to love God?
4. What does it look like for you to love others?

He must be God – Emu Music
Indescribable – Chris Tomlin
River of Fire – Stuart Townend

Design a boardgame and make some rules for it.
(A good game will mean that anyone can win – not just you!) Learn about the highway code: make a poster for your door so you remember the rules when you leave the house.

Play snakes and ladders or another boardgame.
Follow a recipe to bake a cake or make a meal for your family.