

1. Who in this story needed help?
2. Who were the people who refused to help?
3. Who helped and what did he do?
4. Why did he help the man?

1. Why was Jesus able to heal the man?
2. What do you need Jesus' help with?
3. What should we say to Jesus when he helps us?
4. How is Jesus like a doctor? (Not just because he can heal people!)
5. What has Jesus done to help you?

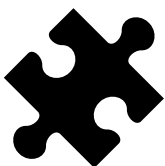

1. Why is it good to help other people?
2. Does Jesus need help from you? Why or why not?
3. How does helping others help you become more like Jesus?
4. When it's hard to help others how can Jesus help you with that?

Make a 'helpful jar' write tidy x, clean y, put away z etc. on slips of paper and have everyone take a slip and see how quickly you can empty the jar together.

Make an obstacle course at home then take it in turns to blindfold each other and help them through it. Freeze a small toy in an ice cube and help each other to thaw it. Wear thick gloves and try some challenges: trying shoes, colour a pic, cut out a circle etc.
