

1. How many men did Jesus heal in this story?
2. Why did they need his help?
3. How many men came back to say 'Thank you'?
4. Why is it important to say thank you to people?

1. Why was it a surprise that that man came back?
2. Why do you think the other men didn't say thank you to Jesus?
3. Can you think of some times that you've been thinking about what you've been given so you forget about the person who gave it to you?
4. What are some of the things Jesus has given you that you should say thank you for?

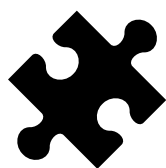

1. What does it tell us about what Jesus is like that he healed all the men even though they weren't all grateful?
2. Do you need to say sorry to God for not thinking of him despite all that he has given you?

Thank you for healing me – Matt Redman

Make and write a thank you card to someone, thank them for being a good friend, parent or teacher. Tell them about some of the things they do that you are thankful for.

Draw a face on the end of your fingers (or use stickers) and tell the story of the ten men who are healed. Play 'I had a nice day and I'm thankful for...' take it in turns to say that sentence and then say one thing you're thankful for. The next person has to say your thing and their own. The next person must say all of them.
