

1. What was something sad that happened in this story?
2. What was something happy that happened in this story?
3. Who was guilty but was set free?
4. Why did Jesus need to die?

1. How are we like Barabbas?
2. What are the consequences for living our own way not God's way?
3. Why was Jesus the only person who could have died to take away the punishment for sin?
4. When Jesus came back to life what did it show us he had done?

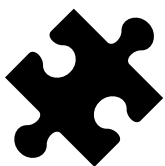

1. Jesus died on the cross so that we could be saved. What do we need to do to receive that gift?
2. What should change about our lives now that we know Jesus died for us?

Make a cross to remind you of what Jesus did. You can get ideas from www.disorganisedsundayschoolblog.com/

Can you grow a plant and look after it? Try cress or mustard seeds on cotton wool in an egg carton or eggshell. Make a marble run from junk materials. During either these activities talk about the consequences; 'What happened when you did that?' 'How will you get the result you want?'
