

1. What does God save Paul from?
2. How does God help the people on Malta?
3. How can we tell from what happened on Malta that God is good?

1. In what ways is this similar to how we saw Jesus and Peter healing people? And why?
2. The people on Malta believe in a goddess for justice and probably other gods in charge of just one thing. In what ways do we see that God is better?
3. Why is Paul happy to help people he doesn't even know?

1. How has Paul changed since before he met Jesus?
2. Why was he able to change so much?
3. How is Jesus still helping Paul?

Make thank you cards or friendship bracelets (or both!) for people who help you.

Practice a three-legged-race. Learn how to sew – ask an adult or use a youtube video to help you. Fill a balloon with air and a little bit of water and then help each other to keep it from hitting the floor.
